Party Must Have Money.

The Democratic party sorely needs funds to conduct the national campaign, according to a telegram received today at the Dollar Democracy campaign from James W. Gerard, national finance chairman and former ambassador to Germany.

In his telegram to Joe Sparks, financial director of the campaign in South Carolina Mr. Gerard says:

"The party is actually without funds to conduct this campaign. It is without pledges which would enable it to borrow money. Never in its history has its financial condition been so bad in the middle of a presidential campaign. Please do everything that you can to avert actual disaster. On behalf of a candidate who has been fighting a remarkable fight, considering that he has been without arms or ammunition, I appeal to you for immediate and substantial aid. Please convey this message to the South Carolina Democracy and urge every Democratic man and woman in the State to come to the aid of the party in its distress."

Every Democrat in South Carolina is urged to respond to the appeal of the national finance chairman. Every Democrat is urged to give as much as one dollar and more if they are able.

The campaign for funds for the national Democratic party is to be pushed vigorously in South Carolina. The county chairmen have been asked to form strong organizations for the collection of money. The call is insistent and every good Democrat in the State is urged to get back of the movement.

Committees are being formed in many counties of the state to canvass for funds.

TO THE VOTERS OF DILLON COUNTY

The Criminals are fighting Sheriff Lane.

The wife-beaters are fighting Sheriff Lane.

The second primary is not a fight between Clyde Bethea and Sheriff Lane — the fight is between Sheriff Lane and the Criminals of Dillon county, which criminals are backed up with the capital of a few very wealthy men. This is not applicable to all men who are against Sheriff Lane, of course.

BUT WHEN YOU SEE A MAN FIGHTING SHERIFF LANE WITH HIS TONGUE HANGING OUT AND HIS EYES RED WITH HATE, SAYING VILE THINGS AND BEFOULING THE AIR WITH NASTINESS, ASK HIM THREE QUESTIONS:

1. ARE YOU A CRIMINAL?

2. HAVE YOU BEEN PAID THE MONEY?

3. HAVE YOU EVER BEAT YOUR WIFE?

If he answers these questions by saying no, then advise the poor ignorant fellow in the following manner:

1. Point out to him gently that there is a WHOLE BANK FIGHTING SHERIFF LANE.

2. Point out to him with PRIDE that WIFE-BEATERS are fighting Sheriff Lane.

3. Point out to him with honor that the CRIMINALS of Dillon county are FIGHTING Sheriff Lane.

4. Remind him with clearness that they are all very well stocked with money.

See that the scales shall fall from the poor fellow's eyes "which are red and whose tongue hangs out," that he should have his part of the money that is to be spent. See that he is not cheated of his due and robbed of his birthright.

Can any man of reason or good sense be induced to scatter filth and dirt and wallow in mud and utter foul mouthings except by the almighty power of the dollar?

Now since the strife and heat of the campaign has passed over and the storm of filth and dirt has abated, can you look back and view the stand the Sheriff took and admire him?

Sheriff Lane cannot match dollars with Banks and Criminals who are wealthy. Sheriff Lane cannot descend to the low levels of criminals, wife-beaters and such characters, and blow out floods of abuse, foul mouthings, dirt and slander.

You heard it charged on the campaign that Sheriff Lane had persecuted Ed. Kirby, and you heard on the campaign the chief mul-slinger talk about poor Ed. Kirby and how the Sheriff had wronged him.

But he did not tell you that Ed. Kirby was charged in the General Sessions Court at Dillon with beating a woman and cutting open her head, and he did not tell you that the records of Dillon county show that Ed. Kirby plead guilty to the crime.

And two weeks ago, on Sunday the 29th of August, 1920, Ed. Kirby was charged to have committed another crime in MARION COUNTY, and is now in jail at MARION charged with rape on a poor innocent thirteen-year-old girl, and he admits the crime, and Sheriff Lane IS NOT the Sheriff of Marion county. ALL OTHER CHARGES AGAINST SHERIFF LANE ARE JUST AS FALSE AS THE STUFF ABOUT ED. KIRBY.

The Sheriff is with you now to do all that he can for his own election and leaves it with you to decide. He will receive your verdict on Tuesday, the 14th. You are the jury, the case is before you.

The question is, shall money or capital combined with criminals, beat the Sheriff of Dillon county. It is up to you.

ANNOUNCING

First showing for Fall and Winter 1920

Commences September 7th

MORRIS FASS DEPT STORE

CARD FROM MR. BETHEA

Latta, S. C., Sept. 8, 1920.

Editor Herald: I want to thank the voters of the county for the vote I received in the first primary. At the same time I want to reiterate some of the statements I made from the stump during the campaign.

I don't believe any sheriff can possibly make five political campaigns and be a fair and impartial Peace Officer. I am making the race for this office because I want the job I have made a clean fight and one without the use of money, except my legitimate campaign expense, which statement is on file in the office of the Clerk of the Court. I expect to finish the race without attempting to influence a single vote with money.

I don't want to be defeated by reason of malicious political lies or because of prejudices aroused between the different sections of the county. If I am elected I will give Dillon county the best service possible. I will be fair and impartial to all. If I am defeated I will be good enough sport to take it without getting sore.

Address of Senator E. D. Smith to the People of South Carolina

I wish to express to the voters of my State my heartfelt appreciation of the generous support given me in the election last Tuesday. I received more than 20,000 votes over my nearest opponent, and came within a very few votes of a majority.

The issues before the people are clear cut.

Three powerful interests are endeavoring to bring about my defeat.

FIRST. The cotton exchanges on account of the legislation I had passed fixing it so that they could no longer deal in fictitious cotton, and exploit the real cotton of our real farmers.

SECOND. The whiskey interests desire my defeat so as to advertise to the world that South Carolina is repudiating her stand on prohibition.

THIRD. The great financial institutions of Wall Street oppose me. The reason is that by my work in having adopted the proviso to Section 13, of the Federal Reserve Act, the Southern farmers' cotton became a basis of credit. Because of this money power, the manipulators, the speculators, and gamblers on the New York Cotton Exchange are working for my defeat.

They knowing that I am the only Simon Pure farmer in the United States Senate, and that I have been working for the past twelve years to keep them from using our cotton for their own selfish interests, and knowing that by my being advanced to the head of the Agricultural Committee of the Senate my power will be greater than ever before, they are sparing no effort or means to defeat me.

Unlike my opponent I have done and am doing all I can to wipe out factionalism in South Carolina, so we can all co-operate and pull together for a profitable price for our main money crop—cotton, and for the development of all the industrial and other interests of the State.

We have these selfish interests opposed to us, but we are going to win. The people of South Carolina do not move backward, and they will not be deceived by "camouflaged" arguments and false reports. The best years of my life have been given to the service of the people of my State, and my fists are not only doubled, but I am going to strike every enemy of the best interests of South Carolina.

Thanking you again for your confidence already expressed, and with assurances for the future, I am

Yours faithfully,

E. D. SMITH.

Stop!

You are about to hire a sheriff for the next four years. You want a MAN to fill the job.

What is the matter with the criminals of Dillon County? Why are they howling and running mad over the county, fighting Sheriff Lane, with their tongues hanging out and their eyes with red hate?

Does that appeal to you Mr. thinking voter. Is that the kind of Sheriff you want, one whom the criminals fight?
